

Study Scout Creator Partner Agreement

Between Liminal College Consulting LLC, a Virginia limited liability company doing business as Study Scout ("Study Scout"), and the Creator named below.

1. What Study Scout provides. A free Study Scout account for the Creator for as long as this agreement is in force; a personal promo code and link that gives the Creator's audience 25% off their first payment; a partner page at studyscout.ai/partner showing sign-ups and earnings; and the commissions below.

2. Commission. A customer is an account that pays for a Study Scout subscription. The Creator earns 30% of every payment Study Scout collects, after discounts and excluding tax, from a customer who signed up through the Creator's code or link, for payments made within 12 months of that customer's sign-up. The rate becomes 40% once 25 customers attributed to the Creator have each made at least one payment, and section 8 never lowers it. A Creator with 100,000 or more followers on a single platform at signing starts at 40%. Commission is earned on money collected, never on sign-ups, free periods or unpaid invoices. A refund reverses the commission on the refunded amount.

3. Payment. Each commission is held for 30 days after the customer's payment, then approved. Approved commissions are paid monthly, in US dollars, once the approved balance reaches $50. Before the first payment the Creator provides a completed IRS Form W-9 (or the parent or guardian does, under the section for them). Study Scout issues a Form 1099 when the law requires it.

4. What the Creator agrees to do. Only describe your own experience with Study Scout if you have actually tried it. Post only honest opinions and only true statements about Study Scout. Disclose the partnership clearly and conspicuously in every post that mentions Study Scout (for example "#ad" or "I earn a commission", in the video itself or the first line of the caption). Never claim or imply a score gain or a guarantee. When price is mentioned, state it accurately, using the current free period and prices shown at studyscout.ai/pricing, and say that it becomes a paid plan unless cancelled. Never imply that the College Board or the SAT® program endorses Study Scout, and never use "SAT" in a code or handle. If a post breaks this section, the Creator will fix or remove it when Study Scout asks: within 3 days when the disclosure is missing or a claim is false, otherwise within 7 days.

5. Content. The Creator owns their content. The Creator grants Study Scout a non-exclusive, royalty-free licence to repost, with credit, any content the Creator publishes about Study Scout on Study Scout's own social accounts and website. Study Scout will not edit the content beyond cropping or captioning, and will remove it within 7 days of a written request. Use in paid advertising requires separate written agreement each time.

6. What neither party does. No exclusivity either way: the Creator may promote other products, and Study Scout works with other creators. No fixed fee is owed by either party. The Creator may not buy ads on Study Scout's name, run their code through coupon sites, or self-refer.

7. Term and ending it. This agreement starts on the date it is accepted as set out under "How to accept" below. It has no end date. The Creator may end it at any time by email. Study Scout may end it by giving the Creator 30 days' notice by email. Commissions already earned, including those earned during a notice period, are still paid on the normal schedule, and customers already attributed to the Creator keep earning commission for the rest of their 12 months. Study Scout may end it immediately if the Creator breaches section 4 (false claims, missing disclosure) or section 6. Commission is never earned on sign-ups from self-referral, coupon sites, or ads on Study Scout's name.

8. Changes. Study Scout may change the commission rate or discount for future sign-ups with 30 days' written notice. Changes never apply to customers already attributed to the Creator.

9. Independent parties; law. The Creator is an independent contractor, not an employee or agent. Study Scout may assign this agreement to a company formed to run Study Scout, on notice to the Creator and with no change to the terms. This agreement is governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia. It is the whole agreement between the parties on this subject. If any part of it cannot be enforced, the rest still applies. Sections 2, 3, 5 and 7 continue to apply after it ends, so commission owed is still paid. Apart from commission owed under this agreement, neither party is liable to the other for more than $500 or the commissions paid or payable to the Creator in the 12 months before the claim, whichever is greater. This limit does not apply to fraud or intentional misconduct. Notices are by email, to info@studyscout.ai or to the Creator's email below, and email counts as written notice. The parties agree to accept and keep this agreement electronically.

How to accept. Study Scout emails this agreement, with the Creator and Study Scout sections below filled in, in the body of the email or as an attached PDF; a link alone does not count. The Creator accepts by replying "I agree" with their full name from the address it was sent to, or by signing a copy. That reply is the Creator's signature, and Study Scout's sending email is its own. If the Creator is under 18, the agreement starts only when a parent or guardian also accepts the parent or guardian section the same way.

Parent or guardian (only if the Creator is under 18)

I am the parent or legal guardian of the Creator named above. I have read the agreement. I consent to the Creator taking part, and I accept the agreement myself, with the Creator, including the licence in section 5 and the duties in sections 4 and 6. I am the party Study Scout pays, I will provide the Form W-9, and I will receive any tax form. I may end the agreement at any time by email, as section 7 allows the Creator to.
